"I counsel clients through every stage of business in various industries. "

Gordon is dedicated to helping businesses reach their full potential. He has spent over 30 years working with businesses of all sizes and stages of development, from start-ups to mature companies, and believes firmly that innovation and the entrepreneurial spirit live on. Gordon has experience counseling companies in many sectors including, finance, technology, investment networks, cannabis, security, block-chain, event production, materials procurement, recreation, electronic equipment and many more.

Gordon has a unique perspective on the challenges faced by businesses because, in addition to being an attorney, he has been a founder of and held upper-level management positions in several companies. His counsel covers a broad range of legal areas, including investing and finance, corporate governance, vendor and service contracts, human resources, intellectual property, and other crucial areas.

He began his career as an assistant district attorney in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania in 1991, before starting his litigation practice and later transitioning into a corporate and securities practice.

Gordon's passion for working with businesses and his commitment to excellence make him an ideal partner for any company seeking to grow and succeed.
